

Mr. Lemmon then moved to amend the first amendment, by adding after the name of "Joshua Leonard;" the names of Humphrey Humphries and William H. Wailes;

Determined in the negative;

The speaker announced that that the hour had arrived for taking up the order of the day;

On motion of Mr. Townsend, the house suspended the order of the day.

The said amendments were then assented to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed.

The house then proceeded to the consideration of the order of the day, being the unfinished order of yesterday.

On motion of Mr. Bowie, the house was called, and the doorkeeper sent for the absent members.

On motion of Mr. Coombs, the house resolved to proceed with the ordinary business of the session during the absence of the doorkeeper.

The clerk of the senate returned the bill, entitled, an act for the relief and benefit of Samuel Heubener, of Frederick county, endorsed, "will pass, with the proposed amendment,"

Which amendment was read the first, and by a special order the second time, assented to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed;

Also, the preamble and resolution relating to Joseph Ennalls, endorsed, "dissented from;"

Also, the resolution in favor of Jonathan Barkdall; endorsed "assented to," and ordered to be engrossed;

And, delivered a bill, originated in and passed by the senate, entitled, a supplement to an act, entitled, an act to prohibit the transportation of absconding slaves to Hayti, or elsewhere, passed at December session 1824, chapter 85;

Which was read and referred to the committee on colored population.

Also, a resolution relative to a survey of the Annapolis Harbour,

Which was read the first time—and

On motion of Mr. Swann, read a second time by special order, assented to, and returned to the senate.

Mr. Coombs, submitted the following message, which was read and assented to:

By the House of Delegates,
March 3d, 1838.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We return you the bill, entitled, an act to authorise Robert W. Harper, of Prince George's county, to carry with him to the State of Misissippi, a certain negro, who is a slave for a term of years, and respectfully ask your honorable body to reconsider, and pass the same.

By order,

G. G. Brewer, clerk.
